Thomas C. Hebrank ("Receiver"), the Court-appointed permanent receiver for 1 2 Copeland Wealth Management, a Financial Advisory Corporation ("CWM"), 3 Copeland Wealth Management, a Real Estate Corporation ("Copeland Realty"), and their subsidiaries and affiliates (collectively, the "Receivership Entities"), hereby 4 5 submits his fourth interim application for approval and payment of fees and reimbursement of expenses. This application covers fees and costs incurred during 6 the period January 1, 2013 through March 31, 2013 (the "Application Period"). 7 The Receiver has incurred $53,973.00 in fees and $1,889.17 in costs for this 8 Application Period. Detailed descriptions of the services rendered are contained in 9 Exhibit A attached hereto. Exhibit B is a chart reflecting the hours and fees billed to 10 11 each category of services on a monthly basis during the Application Period. 12 Exhibit C is a summary of the out-of-pocket costs. During the Application Period, the Receiver and his staff have spent 307.0 hours at an overall blended billing rate of 13 $175.81 per hour. The Receiver has discounted all fees by ten percent (10%) from 14 regular hourly billing rates. The Receiver is requesting and seeking interim 15 16 approval and payment of 75% of the fees for the Application Period totaling $40,479.75, and costs totaling $1,889.17. The 75% interim award amount is 17 18 consistent with the Court's ruling on the Receiver's Second, Third, Fourth and Fifth Interim Fee Applications. 19

I. OVERVIEW

A detailed description of the history and status of the case is contained in the Receiver's Report #5 and subsequent filings. The following is an overview of the Receivership case for the Application Period.

25

26 A. Copeland Realty Business Operations

Copeland Realty's business was essentially to manage the eight commercial properties owned by the various Copeland Real Estate Limited Partnerships. The Receiver had earlier terminated the Copeland Realty employees and closed down 1 the administrative office; thus saving the Receivership Estate approximately 2 $25,000 per month. The Receiver took over operations for the properties, including 3 managing the properties, responding to tenant needs, working on leasing, receiving 4 5 rents, paying operating expenses and property taxes, and monitoring insurance. In addition, the Receiver engaged tax professionals to prepare tax returns for all of the 6 Receivership Entities. The Receiver had to assist the firm in obtaining the necessary 7 information, and to provide ongoing assistance. 8

- 10

B. Forensic Accounting Review

On February 6, 2013, the Receiver issued Forensic Report #2 – Investors' Equity Positions, focusing on the verification of investor/limited partner equity in the Receivership Entities.

During the Application Period, the Receiver worked extensively to prepare 14 the third forensic accounting report summarizing financial activities involving 15 16 Defendant Copeland. For this report, all transactions involving Defendant were reviewed and analyzed to determine funds and other consideration they received 17 18 from the Receivership Entities. Pooled investment and other investment account details were obtained and reviewed. Defendant equity positions, loans, and 19 advances were analyzed, as were profits from sales of Receivership Entities. Fees, 20 commissions and other income were reviewed and summarized. Payroll 21 information has been and is being obtained and summarized. The report is 22 23 substantially completed, and the Receiver anticipates issuing this forensic report in the near future. 24

25

C. Asset Dispositions

The following summarizes actions taken for the Application Period to date:
Copeland Properties Ten ("CP10") – The Court approved a settlement with the lender on December 28, 2012 whereby the Receiver abandoned his interest in the property. The settlement agreement with the lender on the property allowed for the Receiver to retain $225,000 held by the Receiver. The Receiver substantially completed the transfer during the Application Period.

2. Copeland Properties Eighteen ("CP18") – The Court approved a sale of the property which closed on December 7, 2012 for $8,550,000. The proceeds from the sale have yet to be distributed due to continuing unresolved issues involving demands by the lender.

3. The Receiver reached agreement with legal counsel representing Copeland 8 Realty Limited Partnerships (Copeland Properties Two, L.P./Copeland Properties 9 17, L.P. ("CP2/17"), Copeland Properties Five, L.P. ("CP5"), Copeland Properties 10 11 Seven, L.P. ("CP7"), and Copeland Properties Sixteen, L.P. ("CP16") to abandon the Receiver's interest in these remaining properties to the limited partners for each 12 13 entity. The Court approved the settlement on April 8, 2013 which provided for additional funds coming into the receivership estate. The Receiver is completing the 14 transition of these properties at this time. 15

- 17

D. Notes Receivable Recoveries

The Receiver has additionally performed an analysis and review of all notes 18 receivable for the Receivership Entities, including the tracing of payments and 19 receipts to the accounting and bank records, locating and reviewing notes receivable 20 documentation, and performing interest calculations. In conjunction with General 21 Counsel, the Receiver has made demand for payment and is attempting to collect on 22 all non-Receivership Entities notes receivables. Receiver's counsel has been 23 negotiating settlements with several of the note holders, and anticipates presenting 24 some of these to the Court for approval in the near future. 25 To date, $83,907.90 has been collected. 26
