3 C. LEGAL STANDARD

4 “[I]f a receiver reasonably and diligently discharges his duties, he is entitled to 5 compensation.” Sec. & Exch. Comm’n v. Elliott, 953 F.2d 1560, 1577 (11th Cir. 1992).
6 “The court appointing [a] receiver has full power to fix the compensation of such
7 receiver and the compensation of the receiver’s attorney or attorneys.” Drilling &
8 Exploration Corp. v. Webster, 69 F.2d 416, 418 (9th Cir. 1934). A receiver’s fees must 9 be reasonable. See In re San Vicente Med. Partners Ltd., 962 F.2d 1402, 1409 (9th Cir.
10 1992).

11 As set forth in the Court’s prior fee orders, see, e.g., ECF No. 1764, the Court will
12 assess the reasonableness of the requested fees using the factors enumerated in Sec. &
13 Exch. Comm’n v. Fifth Avenue Coach Lines, 364 F. Supp. 1220, 1222 (S.D.N.Y. 1973)
14 and In re Alpha Telcom, Inc., 2006 WL 3085616, at *2–3 (D. Or. Oct. 27, 2006). Those 15 factors include: (1) the complexity of the receiver’s tasks; (2) the fair value of the 16 receiver’s time, labor, and skill measured by conservative business standards; (3) the 17 quality of the work performed, including the results obtained and the benefit to the 18 receivership estate; (4) the burden the receivership estate may safely be able to bear; and 19 (5) the Commission’s opposition or acquiescence. See Fifth Avenue Coach Lines, 364 F.
20 Supp. at 1222; Alpha Telecom, 2006 WL 3085616, at *2–3.

21 II. DISCUSSION

22 A. Complexity of Tasks

23 1. Receiver

24 The Court finds that the tasks performed by the Receiver during the Application
25 Period were moderately complex. The Receiver undertook the following tasks during 26 the relevant period:

- 27 - handling general administrative issues, including reviewing mail, email, and 28 other correspondence directed at the Receivership Entities;

- 1 - administering the bank accounts of the Receivership Entities;
- 2 - reviewing and approving expenditures;
- 3 - maintaining and updating the Receiver's website with case information, documents, and filing inquiries;
- 4 - preparing Receiver's Thirtieth Interim Report (ECF No. 1757);
- 5 - managing and overseeing the GPs' operations and real properties;
- 6 - managing and overseeing Western's operations;
- 7 - performing the accounting functions of the Receivership Entities;
- 8 - managing and overseeing tax reporting for Receivership Entities;
- 9 - managing and overseeing GP operational bills, loan payments, and cash management;
- 10 - obtaining listing agreements and marketing properties for sale with brokers;
- 11 - analyzing, negotiating, and accepting purchase offers;
- 12 - conducting investor votes;
- 13 - closing property sales;
- 14 - sending monthly case update reports to investors listing major legal filings, property sales activity, court rulings, tax, and other information;
- 15 - listing and responding to sales activity on the various properties; and
- 16 - filing motions to sell properties;

ECF No. 1772 at 3–4.

17 2. Allen Matkins

18 The Court finds that the tasks performed by Allen Matkins during the Application
19 Period were somewhat complex. Counsel undertook the following tasks during this 20 period:

- 21 - providing advice to the Receiver regarding a claim asserted by the Franchise Tax Board;
- 22 - preparing the Receiver's Thirtieth Interim Report (ECF No. 1757);
- 23 - sales of receivership properties including the Minden and Silver Springs properties via the Modified Orderly Sale Process;
- 24 - addressing unique issues with investor distributions, preparing monthly case updates to investors, and responding to several direct inquiries from investors or their counsel regarding distributions;
- 25 - assisting the Receiver in preparing his Thirtieth Interim Fee Application (ECF No. 1758).

1 ECF No. 1773 at 3.
2

3 B. Fair Value of Time, Labor, and Skill

4 The Receiver billed his time at $247.50 per hour and the time of those working for 5 him at $180.00 per hour, resulting in a blended rate of $189.62 per hour during the
6 Application Period. ECF No. 1772 at 3–4, 6. Allen Matkins billed its time at $360.00 –
7 $517.50 per hour. ECF No. 1773-1, Ex. A.

8 The Court continues to find, as it has in previous fee orders, that the rates charged
9 by the Receiver and Allen Matkins are comparable to rates charged in this geographic 10 area and therefore represent a fair value of the time, labor, and skill provided.

11 C. Quality of Work Performed

12 The Court finds that the quality of work performed by the Receiver and Allen
13 Matkins to be above average. The Receiver has, and continues to, competently operate
14 the Receivership as evidenced by Receiver’s Thirty-First Interim Report, ECF No. 1762,
15 while at the same time marshalling assets to support its continued financial integrity.
16 These actions benefit all investors. The Receiver and his counsel have complied with 17 the Court’s orders and have made every effort to protect investors’ interests in the GP
18 properties during the pendency of this litigation.

19 D. Receivership Estate’s Ability to Bear Burden of Fees

20 On August 30, 2016, the Court approved the Receiver’s Modified Orderly Sale
21 Process, ECF No. 1359, and the use of the One Pot approach to distribute receivership
22 assets, ECF No. 1304 at 31. These actions were taken for the dual purpose of increasing
23 the value of the receivership estate by selling GP properties and lowering administrative 24 costs. Id. at 30.

25 The Receiver indicates that the receivership, as of March 31, 2020, held
26 approximately $3.6 million in cash. ECF No. 1772 at 6. The Court finds that the 27 Receivership estate has sufficient ability to bear the instant fee requests.
28

E. Commission’s Opposition or Acquiescence

While the Commission does not expressly approve of the fee applications as reasonable, the Receiver represents that the Commission has expressed its non-opposition to the fee applications. ECF No. 1772 at 6. The Court will accept this representation.

III. CONCLUSION

Considering the above five factors taken together, and considering that “[i]nterim fees are generally allowed at less than the full amount,” Alpha Telecom, 2006 WL 3085616, at *2–3, the Court awards fees and costs as set forth in the following table:

Applicant	Fees Allowed	% of Fees Incurred¹	Costs Allowed	% of Costs Requested
Receiver	$11,498.40	80%	$75.30	100%
Allen Matkins	$5,688.00	80%	$18.00	100%

IV. ORDER

After a review of the parties’ submissions, the record in this matter, and the applicable law, and for the foregoing reasons, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that:

1. The Receiver’s Thirty-First Interim Fee Application, ECF No. 1772, is GRANTED;
2. Allen Matkins’ Thirty-First Interim Fee Application, ECF No. 1773, is GRANTED.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: August 21, 2020

 Hon. Gonzalo P. Curiel
 United States District Judge
